Mentor in Training Agreement between Wild Craft Play and _____

Date: _____

Name:

Phone:

Address:

This is a letter of agreement between Wild Craft Play and _____ to clarify the commitments agreed upon for these dates _____.

_____ will be a mentor in training during the Wild Craft Play Group at the Errington War Memorial Hall and Community Park. I, _____, agree to showing up on time, being fully present and participating fully in the Wild Craft Play Group

I am open to being coached, and willing to be involved in activities in the following ways:

- I will be well fed, and have snacks and water bottle with me for the duration of the program

- I will bring all resources required by the facilitator to ensure a quality experience for the participants.

- I will observe, over-see and facilitate a quality experience from arrival to departure of participants

- I will write down questions or comments and report to Jamie Black

- All supplies (aside from consumed supplies), will be given back to Jamie Black by no later than the following Saturday at 10am.

Wild Craft Play requires _____ to uphold the ethics of the program, providing open and honest feedback when required. Given that _____ is in training, Wild Craft Play is willing to allow them to act-as-if a trained mentor, recognizing that they are responsible to their superior until they are certified mentors.

I, _____, will provide a Criminal Record Check, and proof of First Aid Certification before the start of the program.

This agreement is legal and binding and will be put into effect as soon as both parties have signed it.
