

STUCK IN THE MUD

A newsletter brought to you by Wild Craft Play

VOL. 1, ISSUE 1 FEBRUARY 1, 2016

SPONSORED BY: SOLE ADVENTURE, ERRINGTON WAR MEMORIAL HALL, ERRINGTON FARMER'S MARKET, NATURE'S WISDOM ORGANICS

Top stories in this newsletter

Stuck in the mud...

Parent Hand Book Updated

Introducing new staff

Vision and Mission

FUNraiser!

When do you get stuck in the mud?

For one so young, there is no thought as to what may happen after acting on an impulse. To a young girl, a ditch full of thick, wet mud looks like a great deal of fun; but what happens after the fun? Out for a walk, on a cloudy day, eight year old Jenny notices an entire field that is all mud and puddles. Quite a contrast in the middle of the forest. As her group walks down the trail, Jenny looks into the ditch. click here for more...

Parent Handbook & Reg Forms updated, please re-do, review and initial

Thank you for your patience as we re-create documents and enhance the resources available to parents and staff.

If you wouldn't mind filling out the new Reg form, initialing the updated handbook, showing that you have seen the changes, we are happy to print you your own copy.

Introducing New Staff and Volunteers

Well, it is decided, we have accumulated a number of staff and volunteers to help shape and successfully provide safe and engaging child care at Wild Craft Play Adventure Program.

Click here to read more about who is here to support Wild Craft Play!

Vision and Mission of Wild Craft Play

Our vision is to affect great change in the world, through enhancing the soft social skills of children, youth and families through wildly crafted play.

Our mission is to generate specialized experiences for children, youth and families to practice life skills through creativity, play and deep nature connection.

Help us spread the word like WILD FIRE, to raise money for our program

If you haven't heard yet, Jamie has decided to host a Benefit Concert to raise money for the program. Right now it is costing more money than it is to run the program, and we need financial help. Who do you know that would buy tickets, offer support, and wants to join in the FUNraising?

Title: WILD FIRE

Event Date: Sat. May 28, 8:30pm (dark),

Location: Errington Community Park

Goal: $2000 profit

Live musicians, Dancers, Singers, Overhead projection, Videography

Wild Craft Play
info@wildcraftplay.com
PO Box 747 Coombs BC, V0R 1M0
(250)-927-7923

Click to send an email to unsubscribe ~ please include UNSUBSCRIBE in the Subject line. Thank you!